

SUPPORTING WOMEN'S BUSINESSES

When you buy briquettes from local women producers, you are doing more than buying cooking fuel. You are helping women:

Earn income

Support their families

Create jobs in the community

Develop business skills

Build sustainable livelihoods

Women are producing briquettes from local materials that would otherwise be thrown away. Every purchase supports local economic growth and environmental protection. By choosing briquettes, you are investing in your community. Thank you for supporting women-led businesses.

Buy and see the difference yourself today!

Available in Abeokuta, Ijebu-Ode and Odeda, Ogun State
